

BATTLE OF MEXICO VIVIDLY DESCRIBED BY AN EYE-WITNESS

Correspondent of the United Press Says Beautiful City is Now Almost Complete Wreck

HAD TEN DAY REIGN OF TERROR

Thousands of Non-Combatants Are Killed in Fierce Fighting in Capital's Streets

EVEN RED CROSS NOT RESPECTED

Dead and Wounded Littered Thoroughfares Because Rescuers Were Targets of Riflemen

(The following is the first complete descriptive story of the ten day battle in the City of Mexico. It was written by a staff correspondent of the United Press who witnessed the fighting from start to finish, and who was able today to get the first detailed story through over the clogged wires via Vera Cruz and Galveston.)

(By a staff correspondent.) MEXICO CITY, Feb. 20.—So swift had been the current of startling events since the conclusion on Tuesday of the terrific ten day conflict in the heart of this city that it was not until today that the half-crazed populace found time to draw a deep breath and look about them on the havoc created by the tremendous bombardment.

It is a panorama of death and destruction that spreads itself today before the eyes of thousands of curious citizens and foreigners swarming the streets within the zone of the unparalleled combat. The spectacle is an infinitely sad one.

Beautiful Homes Wrecked

Hundreds of beautiful homes, with gaping holes torn in their walls, totter on their foundations in all parts of the city. Scores of splendid public and business structures expose their marred and battered walls. But it is in the district where the poorer classes had their homes that the element of tragedy is most terribly manifested. Hundreds of houses in this quarter were literally reduced to ruins while upon the doors of thousands of scarred and crumbling dwellings hang folds of crepe, commemorating the deaths of fully 2,000 non-combatants.

I was a witness of the opening act of the fearful war drama in the Zocalo, the great plaza before the national palace. On the morning of Sunday, February 9, the news flashed through the city that a new revolution had begun with the liberation from prison of Felix Diaz and General Bernardo Reyes. I was in time to see both of these leaders escorted to the palace by soldiers through a crowd of cheering, wildly excited people that filled the huge plaza and overflowed for blocks into the streets that open upon it.

Long lines of infantry stood with backs to the palace wall, a scattered line of skirmishers lying on their bellies a few paces in front of them. Behind these ranks of infantry and not more than a hundred feet distant, the First cavalry regiment stood ranged in a long single line, troopers knee to knee, their officers drawn up before them.

Walks Between Combatants

Thinking the entire show a demonstration in honor of the liberation of Diaz, I walked between the lines, curious to see all that was going on. I strolled half way to the length of the palace and then turned and sauntered back. Had I any intimation of what was about to follow my gait might not have been so leisurely.

I noted many machine guns on the palace roof, but did not imagine they

MILITANTS BURN PAVILION IN PARK

Kew Gardens Structure Destroyed by Flames Started by Two Suffragettes

INCENDIARY ATTACKS MAGISTRATE

One of Women Found at Fire Hurls Books at Bench When Remanded

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The militant suffragettes reverted to arson again today, setting fire to and completely destroying the restaurant pavilion in the Botanical gardens around Kew palace. Two young women, Lillian Lenton and Joyce Locke, both prominent in the ranks of the militants, were caught by the police trying to escape from the gardens. They were seen to throw away an old portmanteau in which was found paraphernalia for starting the fire.

Police Surround Gardens
The Kew gardens pavilion burst into flame at about 3 a. m. The walls had been soaked with kerosene. Piles of oil soaked shavings and cotton had been heaped up about the floor and "Votes for Women" cards scattered about. The sudden conflagration warned the police that the fire was incendiary and they quickly formed a cordon around the gardens to prevent the egress of anyone still within the gates. The two women were arrested as they made for the wall of the gardens.

In court Miss Locke demanded bail, threatening that if she and her companion were sent to prison they would go on a hunger strike and force the keepers either to starve them to death or release them.

"You cannot frighten this court nor shall we permit you to attempt to intimidate us," declared the magistrate hotly.

Throws Books at Judge

With a scream of defiance, Miss Locke picked up a handful of papers and hurled them at the magistrate's head. She followed them with two or three law books from the desk in front of her, and kept the magistrate ducking his head before court attendants could seize her, and prevent further violence. A furious struggle, during which the police and court attendants had to resort to harsh methods to subdue the unruly prisoners, the magistrate committed the two girls to jail without bail.

They were led or rather half-carried out of the court screaming defiance, and shouted to the excited crowd that they were being made martyrs to the cause of woman's suffrage, but that they would die before they would submit to "man made" laws.

Urges Bloodshed

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Miss Christobel Pankhurst, militant daughter of a militant mother, declared today for real bloodshed and violence in the case of women's suffrage.

"The bomb episode in Lloyd George's house is only the beginning of a more effective revolutionary campaign," she said. "The methods we must adopt are those taken by the people of the Balkans and in Mexico, where people are slain in the streets daily. Hitherto women of our cause have destroyed only property. The real revolution has begun."

E. R. Roberts, Who Lived in La Crosse County 62 Years, Dies at Bangor

BANGOR, Wis., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—E. R. Roberts, a pioneer resident of La Crosse county, died last night at his residence here.

Mr. Roberts has been a resident of this county for sixty-two years, having first engaged in farming in Bostwick Valley then moving to Bangor and engaging in the milling business. Mr. Roberts had a very wide circle of acquaintances, all of whom admired him for his upright and fair dealing. Mr. Roberts was born in Wales, May 19, 1854.

He Leaves to Mourn his Loss his Widow, Two Sons and one daughter.

They are Mr. F. P. Roberts and L. J. Roberts of Bangor, and Mrs. J. J. Jones of Minneapolis. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at Bangor, Wis., at the residence. Interment will take place at Bangor at 10:30.

AMERICANS FILE MILLIONS IN CLAIMS

U. S. State Department to Adjudicate Damages to Property in Battle of Mexico

KEEP READY FOR INTERVENTION

Troops and Warships to Be Held at Present Posts Until Peace Is Sure

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—With the return of American refugees to their wrecked homes in Mexico City today, this country faced the difficult task of adjudicating claims for damages that promise to reach between $50,000,000 and $75,000,000 in the capital city alone.

How great was the loss to the Americans during the ten days' battle can only be guessed. Today's dispatch containing the following may be accepted, however, as an index of the extent of the damage.

"Many found their residences entirely wrecked; scarcely a home that was not damaged by rifle shot and nearly all have been looted by mobs of soldiers."

Ambassador Wilson has begun investigations into claims presented by Americans. These will be submitted to the state department and by them to the Mexican government. Despite comparative calm that reigned over Mexico early today, the army and navy still remained ready for intervention.

DRINKS FATAL TO ICEMEN

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 20.—Complaining that they are in danger of death as a result of too friendly giving of refreshments, Minneapolis icemen in the future will refuse all tips, liquid or otherwise. The St. Paul and Minneapolis union has a record of several deaths caused by drivers falling under the wheels of the heavily loaded wagons.

KONEY DETERMINED TO GET HIS $7,500

Declares He Will Stick to Demand for Increase in Conference with Huggins

No announcement of the results of the conference yesterday between Miller Higgins, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Eddie Koney, regarding the $7,500 salary for which the La Crosse boy is holding out, has been made. Koney stated his attitude in the matter for the first time Tuesday, when he gave the following interview to the St. Louis Star:

"As long as Miller comes clean with it; as long as he's not mean with it," says the great first baseman, "everything will slide along like a greased trombone in our conference. As long as he's not rough, I'll be as docile as a cow, but if he discharges thoughts that are at all goggle eyed, we'll have to go to the mat."

"I think I am entitled to some of the tin. Last year I was worth more than I got, but they shackled me down because I had been foolish enough to sign for three years at a low figure. The magnates on the 'inside' counting up their 'tin' and 'kale' held me in bondage. I had to fall for it. Just put it down and root for it like a son-of-a-gun that my John Hancock don't get on a contract this year until I go what I want."

"Baseball is a great game. Take a team with speed. They've got it to burn. At fielding they're on the job from morning till night. But what good does all that do when they are not hitting. You've got to have your hitters—and, believe me, I'm a hitter."

"I am apt to get hurt next season—maybe crippled for life. How do I know how long I am going to last? How do I know how many years of baseball I have in me?"

"I'm married—thank heaven—and I have to look out for someone else besides 'E. J.'"

"I think I'm worth $7,500, and I'm going to get it. And remember, playing first base ain't no puddin'."

SCOUT MINE DISASTER

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 20.—A message from Yale, B. C., this afternoon denied the story wired from Winnipeg that there has been a heavy loss of life in an explosion at the Swish Pea mine there. The message stated that only a few men are employed there and that there has been no serious accident. Winnipeg dispatches, alleged to be on Vancouver authority, reported seventy men missing.

WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 20.—Private wire received here this morning by a local company stated that great loss of life had occurred by an explosion in the Swish Pea mine at Yale, B. C. Seventy men are said to be missing.

BILL TO LEGALIZE BONDS OF VILLAGES

Kneen and Bosshard to Attempt to Relieve Situation at Bangor and West Salem

THE VILLAGES ARE OVER-BONDED

Proposed Sewer System May Be Held Up if the Bill Fails to Pass

If a bill, to be introduced in the assembly by Assemblyman E. J. Kneen and in the senate by Senator Otto Bosshard, amending the law on village bonding so as to change the limit from one to five per cent of the assessed valuation is killed, the proposed sewer improvement of the Village of Bangor, estimated to cost $14,000, will have to be abandoned. Not only that, but the question as to whether the Village of West Salem has the legal right to pay off a bond issue of nearly $15,000 to a Chicago bonding firm will arise.

Under the laws of 1903 villages of the class of West Salem and Bangor are prohibited from issuing bonds in excess of one percent of their assessed valuation. The 1912 valuation of West Salem is $700,000 and of Bangor $459,272. Thus West Salem cannot legally issue bonds in excess of $7,000 and Bangor is limited to $4,600.

West Salem Over-bonds
Two years ago nearly $15,000 was procured from a Chicago bonding firm by West Salem on a bond issue and under the statute $8,000 of these bonds were illegally issued and may therefore be worthless because of the technicality in the law limiting the bond issue.

Should the proposed law amending the limitation be defeated, county officials claim that West Salem could avoid the payment of the bonds on the grounds that they comprise an illegal issue.

Bangor Sells $14,000 Bonds

According to citizens of Bangor, bonds amounting to $14,000 were recently sold to the State Bank of La Crosse in order to procure funds to carry out the proposed sewer system. As they are limited to $4,600, bond issue by the present law, $9,400 of these bonds are illegal. Although the negotiations for the sale of the bonds have been consummated and the bonds have not been delivered nor has the payment of the money been made by the State Bank. Should the proposed bill be defeated the deal for the sale of the sewer bonds will have to be abandoned and the new system indefinitely postponed.

According to the assertion made today by men who are thoroughly acquainted with the situation there are nearly a dozen Wisconsin villages that have issued bonds in excess of their legal limit through ignorance of the law and the defeat of the proposed amendment will probably mean several legal battles between bonding firms and villages over the payment of the bonds.

The questions of whether the city has the right to redeem illegal bonds if it so desires; whether any citizen can stop payment by procuring an injunction and whether the villages could be forced to redeem the illegal bonds are matters which would be answered by the courts if legal proceedings were started.

The proposed amendment to the law will be introduced for the purpose of legalizing the over-bonding of the villages involved and safeguarding the bonding firms which have purchased the bonds of the villages in question. If the amendment should pass all of the villages will be within their bonding limit and the village of Bangor will be enabled to carry through the proposed sewer system.

BOSSHARD DEFEATS LOBBY'S PRIVILEGE

La Crosse Senator's Spirited Attack Keeps Rule Barring Lobbyists from Floor

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—An attempt to change the present rule barring lobbyists from the floor of the senate was defeated by a vote of 22 to 7 this morning only after a spirited attack on the proposed change by Senator Otto Bosshard of La Crosse. The invitation to get out of the chamber extended to Harry W. Bolens by Sergeant-at-Arms Leicht last week prompted the attempt to restore the old time privileges to lobbyists. Senator Bosshard pictured the senate chamber under the present rule as the only haven to which senators could flee to avoid buttonholing by lobbyists.

WILSON APPROVES "SEVEN SISTERS"

President-elect Says Trust Laws Mark New Era in Business Life

WILL HURT ONLY THE DISHONEST

Declares Honest Business and Honest Men Have Nothing to Fear

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 20.—In a statement issued today concerning his new corporation bills just enacted into law, in New Jersey, President-elect Wilson declared that "those who would engage in the practices of ruining rivals and filching from the pockets of the people more than they ought reasonably to demand are the only ones who will have cause to regret the bills' enactment." He further declared that "Honest business and honest men have nothing to fear."

"These laws mark a new era in our business life."

"Business cannot hereafter expand by the acquisition of stocks and bonds of other corporations for the purpose of controlling them."

"The purpose (of the acts) is to strike down monopoly and restraint of trade, big or little."

"The salutary provision of the act defining trusts is that it makes it unlawful to make any agreement directly or indirectly, which will preclude free and unrestricted competition in business. Monopolies have too often accomplished by indirect means what they could not do directly. The holding company is an example of this. Were two or more companies by existing law could not make an agreement in restraint of trade, they hit upon the scheme of fusing and merging into a holding company which regulates the business of the subsidiary companies in such a way as to restrict trade and increase prices."

WANTS PEACE WITH NORTHERN REBELS

Huerta Emissaries to Arrange Terms with Supporters of Gomez; Want Cabinet Jobs

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 20.—General Inez Salazar, General David De La Fuente, and Emilio Vasquez Gomez, chiefs of the revolutionary forces of the north, are to confer with emissaries from the new provisional government of General Victoriano Huerta, at a point within easy reach of Juarez. As soon as Huerta designates three men who are to represent his government, the conference will be held and upon it will depend the peace of northern Mexico.

If northern rebels are appeased, the revolution will end, leaders said today. This can be brought about by giving Emilio Vasquez Gomez and General De La Fuente cabinet positions, making General Salazar commander of rurales and by paying the rebel soldiers 100 pesos each.

The federalists at Juarez will sustain the Huerta government, Colonel Vasquez, the commandant, and General Antonio Rabago, federal commander in the northern military zone, have both announced their acceptance of Huerta as provisional president.

There is still considerable alarm regarding the situation at Chihuahua City. It is difficult to get telegraphic advices from there, the latest report stated that Governor Abraham Gonzales resigned yesterday as soon as advised of the overthrow of Madero. Gonzales was Madero's chief lieutenant in the early days of the revolution against Porfirio Diaz.

There is a feeling among the rebel chieftains that the Mexican congress would have taken a more direct step towards peace had it elected Francisco De La Barra provisional president instead of Huerta. The northern rebels would undoubtedly have accepted De La Barra, who is popular with all classes.

SITUATION STILL SERIOUS

LONDON, Feb. 20.—Reports as to the standing of the dispute between Bulgaria and Roumania over territory along the Black sea were conflicting and it was admitted that the situation was still serious.

A report from St. Petersburg today declared that Russia had been asked to arbitrate these differences and would likely accept. Roumania is said to have appealed to the Russian government.

A Constantinople dispatch received here today declares that the Turks and Bulgarians each lost 3500 men in a three days engagement just concluded at Bulair in Gallipoli.

IOWA SOLONS O. K. SUFFRAGE

DES MOINES, Iowa, Feb. 20.—By a vote of 81 to 26, the Bruce bill for a constitutional amendment to give women the ballot passed the Iowa house today. It now goes to the senate. The galleries were crowded with women.

M'CALEB HEADS SOCIALIST TICKET

Organizer Selected to Lead Fight for "City Fit to Raise a Child In"

PLATFORM IS SHORT AND SWEET

Briefest Political Document in Local History Sets Forth Socialist Program

The socialist local of the south side met last night and nominated R. C. McCaleb, organizer, for mayor. They also adopted what is undoubtedly the shortest platform ever written by a political organization in La Crosse. The ticket is as follows: For mayor, R. C. McCaleb. For city clerk, For tax commissioner, John Marquette. For comptroller, Oscar Houck. For treasurer, C. A. Noetzelman. For board of public works, George Bell.

For police judge, Thomas Nekola. The nomination for city clerk was not announced, the choice of the members not having been accepted as yet.

Commenting upon the platform as expressive of the purposes of the socialist party, Mr. McCaleb said: "We believe in so conducting the city as to make it fit to raise a child in."

The platform in full is as follows: Social Democratic Platform

"We approve the United States constitutional provisions for the separation of church and state.

Our Demands
"Equality of poor and rich before the law.

"That no free water or streets be given private or religious organizations.

"Abolition of the vice traffic.

"Public ownership of public utilities.

"Free legal advice for people of small means, through the office of city or municipal attorney.

"Municipal financed university extension courses in social science with free admission to all citizens.

"As all social democratic nominees sign undated resignations, that they may be recalled unsatisfactory, we call upon other candidates to do the same."

There will be a meeting of the north side local tonight to endorse the candidates and platform.

Select a Designation

The socialists, who in accord with their conviction that all success depends upon organization are opposed to the non-partisan election law, have found a way to convey the identity of their candidates to their voters. The law permits a designation of five words, but the name of no party may be included in the five words. The socialists will print the word "partisan" after the name of each socialist candidate upon the ticket, and socialist voters are expected to understand the message the word is intended to convey.

OLD EMPLOYE OF BURLINGTON DIES

Henry A. Worthington, Here Since Road Built Into La Crosse, Succumbs to Diabetes

Henry Appleton Worthington, an employe of the Burlington road in La Crosse for 27 years, died this morning at 6 o'clock at his residence, 1734 Cameron avenue. Mr. Worthington was 45 years old. He was wire chief and manager of the railroad's telegraph office in La Crosse.

Mr. Worthington was born in Wisconsin in 1868. When the Burlington road began to build through La Crosse, he was put in charge of the telegraph office as the first operator and has stayed in the service ever since. He was married in October, 1894, to Miss Malia Schoenfelder, who survives him. There are no children.

Death came as the result of a long standing case of diabetes. Mr. Worthington has been ailing for four years, and was forced to drop work last July.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed, and will be announced later. Mrs. Worthington requests that flowers be omitted.

NAGEL PESSIMISTIC

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—America will become a haven for undesirable foreign refugees, if the United States supreme court fails to reverse the decision of the New York courts, permitting Cipriano Castro, the "stormy petrel" of South America, and Edward Mylius, convicted of libeling King George of England, to remain in this country. This was the declaration of Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel today.

HUERTA MAY ORDER THE EXECUTION OF FRANCISCO MADERO

New Mexican President Is Enraged by Two Alleged Attempts Made on His Life

REVOKES PERMISSION TO LEAVE

Deposed Ruler Not Allowed to Leave According to Schedule for Vera Cruz

THREE EXECUTIVES IN ONE HOUR

Madero and Lascrain Give Way to General Huerta as President Inside of Brief Space

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 20.—The execution of the ex-president, Francisco I. Madero, was predicted here today. Feeling against him is strong and it was believed an effort would be made to have him put to death for the killing of Riveroll, when the latter attempted to arrest him and the members of his cabinet.

Riveroll fell mortally wounded when a few revolver shots were exchanged between Madero's friends and the officers sent by General Huerta and Blanquet to make Madero a prisoner.

Tried to Kill Huerta

Officials of the new provisional government are understood to be particularly bitter toward Madero, particularly since General Huerta, the provisional president, issued a statement in which he accuses the Madero family of two attempts upon his life since the beginning of the Diaz revolt.

Within one hour last night the republic of Mexico had three presidents, Francisco I. Madero, although deposed, was still legally in possession of the office until his resignation was formally accepted. Pedro Lascrain was elected by congress as president ad interim, and twenty-six minutes later he was succeeded by General Huerta as provisional president.

The accusations against the Madero family, brought by General Huerta, added greatly to the feeling against the former president. Twice, according to the general, he narrowly escaped death. Once he was standing in the national palace when a sharpshooter attempted his life. At the banquet at which General Huerta, excited yesterday by his guards, was arrested, General Huerta said repeated attempts were made to induce him to drink wine. An analysis of the wine, according to the general, showed that it contained cyanide of potassium.

Lascrain Has Brief Term

The election of Pedro Lascrain was in keeping with the agreement entered into by Madero and the congress leaders that Madero should resign in favor of a president ad interim. Congress kept its promise that Madero should be succeeded by a president ad interim and immediately elected a provisional president to succeed Lascrain.

Declaring that the lives and properties of all foreigners would be fully protected during the period of reorganization in Mexico, General Felix Diaz, whose revolt led the overthrow of the Madero government, today declared he would support the new administration.

The belief that Madero was likely to be executed became general today when it became known that the deposed president was not permitted to start for Vera Cruz this morning, as had been planned. General Huerta had said nothing in regard to the two attempts upon his life until after the list of 22 leading Mexicans, designated by Madero as "those who should die," was found among official documents yesterday. This thoroughly aroused Huerta.

Families Wait in Vain
While congress was in session late last night, Senora Madero, wife of the deposed president, the former president's father, his two daughters-in-law, Angela and Mercedes, Mrs. Suarez, wife of the deposed vice president and her children assembled at the railroad station. They had been told that as soon as the senate had acted formally on Madero's resignation, he would join them and the entire party would start for Vera Cruz on a special train, thence to sail for Europe. Suarez was also expected, but as time passed and the two deposed officials did not appear with their guards, the women in the party became exceedingly uneasy. It was after midnight when former foreign Minister Lascrain appeared and announced that General Huerta had decided that neither Madero or Suarez would be permitted to accompany them to Vera Cruz.

Fear for Madero
With the death of Gustavo Madero in mind, members of the family now fear that the deposed president may fall as did his brother in the arsenal. Should word be received that Madero has been given any liberty in the arsenal all hope for him will be abandoned. It would then be understood that he is at liberty under the dread

On Monday night also there are held the class in common school branches, under Mrs. Ida Taylor, and the English foreigners' class, under Miss Dinsdale.

On Tuesday night there are the sewing and embroidery classes, the former under the direction of Miss Florence Moore and the latter with Miss Nellie Manchester.

The Ramblers' club, usually a summer organization only, have decided to meet at the association every other Tuesday night and take up indoor nature study until the ramblers can be taken up again. This club meets with Miss Bertha Shuman and one of the first studies to be taken up will be that of birds.

The course in "First aid to the injured," which was taken up by a number of the girls at the Y last year, will be given by Dr. Nimocks again this year. This course is prepared by the National Red Cross association, and certificates are given those successfully passing an examination to be given at the conclusion of the course.

On Wednesday nights will be held the class in French conversation, presided over by Mrs. Thompson and the Glee club, in charge of Miss Marie Nowak. The following night, Thursday, the class in cooking, under Miss Ann Hallock, the dramatic class, under Mrs. D. O. Coate, and the German class, under Mrs. Bret-nall, will meet.

The Kodak club, a new organization will meet with Mr. G. E. Martner at the association building on Friday nights. This promises to prove a class that will appeal to the many of the association members who are "kodak fiends," and a large enrollment is assured.

Daddy's Bedtime

The Talking Wire
Story— That Wouldn't
Take a Bath

All Night the Snow
Came Down.

ISN'T there a story ready yet? Jack and Evelyn asked daddy as they cuddled down in the window seat. It was almost their bedtime.

"Well, yes; perhaps there is," daddy replied. "Do you see those tall poles along which run the shining wires—the talking wires—over which our words go slipping when we talk to one another over the telephone?"

"Once on a time there was a talking wire that stretched between the house of a little boy and girl to the town. There a young lady sat in an office and switched the wire to other wires, so that the folks who had the telephone could talk to other folks who had telephones."

"And this wire, which came from the little girl and boy's house, thought very well of itself."

"One day the clouds gathered in the sky, and tiny little drops of rain began to fall in the road along which the wire stretched."

"The wire didn't like the rain. It said it didn't need a bath."

"The rain spoke very politely, but the wire wouldn't hear its excuses."

"If you don't stop pouring that water over my back I'll speak to the wind man, and he'll blow you right away," the wire threatened.

"The rain couldn't stop, though, for the cloud kept right on sending it down to earth. So the talking wire sent a message to its friend, the wind man."

"The wind man was away off up north at a very cold place when he got the message and hurried as fast as he could to oblige the talking wire."

"The rain was coming down quite heavily when he reached the wire. As soon as the little raindrops felt the cold breath of the wind as it came panting up from the north they began to shiver and shake. In a minute some of them had put on their little white cloaks and caps, so that when it looked at them the talking wire did not know them, for now, you see, they were little snowflakes instead of little raindrops."

"And the raindrops that were clinging to the wire, as raindrops will when they fall on anything, were turned to ice, so that they couldn't move at all."

"And the wire was shut in by this ice coating, so that it couldn't call to its friend, the wind man, to go away."

"All night the snow kept coming down, and it clung to the icy wire until it groaned and shivered beneath the weight piled on its slender length. And at last it broke, and the ends fell to the ground, so that it wasn't a talking wire any more."

"And then, oh, my, how sorry it was it had complained about the gentle little rain!"

MR. CASH PIANO BUYER: You appreciate of course that it takes money to run a piano business. You understand that it takes a great amount of money to sell pianos on the installment plan and carry the leases. If you are contemplating the purchase of a piano come in and make us an offer on any instrument in our entire stock, and dollars to doughnuts we will accept it. We deliver the instrument to your home at our own expense, and give you a beautiful stool to match the piano.

MR. TIME PIANO BUYER: What is preventing you from taking advantage of this sale? You will never have such an opportunity again, never, if you live to be 100 years old. If it is the question of price, come in and make us an offer. If it is a question of terms, you can name them yourself. We will sell you any piano in our entire stock at your own price and on your own terms. We deliver the instrument in your home at our expense. We will give you a beautiful stool to match your piano.

TO THE PUBLIC: Wednesday's sales reached high water mark. We were simply deluged with buyers, and pianos sold as fast as we could possibly handle each customer. We wish to apologize to the many who went out without purchasing. We have taken on additional salesmen, who will cater to you competently and intelligently.

Hear Prof. Gribble play the Ellington, his choice, concerts every day at 3:00 o'clock. Do not fail to hear him.

When the free bridge fight first started The Tribune warned the public that if it did not carry La Crescent would have a bank, an elevator, stock yards and a general store.

LA CRESCENT ALREADY HAS
THE BANK. We now serve notice upon the city council that unless the bridge is made free unconditionally
the general store and the elevator will be in operation within one year from this date.

For the sake of La Crosse we regret that this is so, but it is a fact.
The Tribune has it upon the most reliable information that the organization of these institutions will be completed this spring. Were there a good road and a free bridge they would not pay, and those who are about to invest in them realize that they would not pay. It is upon the conviction that there is to be no free bridge that they are proceeding with their plans, for unless the bridge is made free they will prove an excellent investment.

Will this city administration act
in time to prevent the loss to La Crosse of perhaps one-half of the patronage of the rich Minnesota territory tributary to this city?

THE STIGMA ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE

The public is getting next to the Wall street game. In aggregate market value seats on the exchange have dwindled $52,800,000 since 1900. The figures are secured by comparing the price at which a seat recently sold with what one brought four years ago. The difference is exactly 50 per cent, the latest sale being for $48,000 just half of the 1909 record price.

The reason for this decrease in the value of stock exchange membership is that the country has awakened to the meaning of Wall street and is avoiding it. Responsible only to itself, yet holding the welfare of millions in the hollow of its hands, it has played fast and loose with the country's finances for years.

Emerson has a theory, stated with masterly clearness in his essay on "Compensation," that every evil au-tomatically brings into being its own cure. It is applicable to Wall street.
Abuse of power has caused rebellion
on the part of the investing public, that vast flock from which Wall street recruits its "lamb."

The financial revelations of the last few years have not been made in vain. Exploitation of the country's industry on a huge scale has gone too far. The purely speculative element of trading has been allowed too free a rein. Fake sales and bunco have had their day.

The stock exchange either must reform itself or submit to reform from without. It must be incorporated. It must establish and admit some kind of responsibility with the country at large. Otherwise the moving finger of public opinion will write its doom upon the wall.

There is, of course, a place for a stock exchange conducted along right lines. Men began to sell and barter as soon as they emerged from primeval rudeness. But the exchange must be a place for legitimate trading and for a responsible, responsive financial agency; it must be conducted along new lines to overcome the stigma that the present Wall street has accumulated.

SURRENDER HUGGINS
OR ELSE RESIGN

We quote from the sporting page of the St. Louis Star:

"Insurrecto Edward Konetchyo is reported still to be hiding in Holdout Hills. His last manifesto issued to Generalissimo Huggins and E. Presidente Britton was that he would meet them on the field of battle Wednesday.

"It is said this game will start at 2 o'clock."

The foregoing appeared in the Star's issue of February 17th wherefore the meeting referred to must have been scheduled for yesterday.

perfect heads what's the difference?

his brain removed and that of a dog substituted. For his wife's sake we hope he gets none of those bulldog ideas.

isn't.

Ah've nevah had no chance fo' ease.

Only One Glance
"Did you notice that woman who just passed?" inquired he.
"The one," responded she, "with the gray hat, the white feather, the red velvet roses, the mauve jacket, the black skirt, the mink furs, and the lavender spats?"
"Yes."
"Not particularly."—Kansas City Journal.

Silenced
"I see the women are going to wear medieval costumes in that suffrage parade," remarked Mr.
Wombat pleasantly. "What are you going to wear my dear?"
"My medieval hat," said Mrs.
Wombat, significantly.
And there were no further remarks.—Kansas City Journal.

Knew Where
The lawyer for the convicted pickpocket took the fine imposed upon his client very much to heart.
"Twenty-five dollars," he expostulated. "Your honor, where is this poor unfortunate man to get that much money?"
His honor did not know or, if he did, he kept the knowledge to himself. But the prisoner was less discreet.

"Just let me out of here for ten or fifteen minutes," he said, "an d'll show you."—Exchange.

A Cheerful Complaint
"Good morning, Mrs. McCarty!"
said Mrs. Ryan as the friends met at the market. "How's all the folks getting along?"
"They be all doing wel," replied
Mrs. McCarty, "except my old man.
He's been enjoyin' poor health for some time, but this mornin' he complained of feelin' better."—Youth's Companion.

Regrets
"Brudder Johnson, will you lead us in prayer."
"Ah's sorry to disappoint de Lord
tonight, parson, but Ah got a cold on mah chest."—Puck.

Where Discretion Was Better

During the recent lawsuit in Chicago in which Wilton Lackaye was interested a friend asked him if he would fight the injunction of the court.

"Fight the courts," repeated the actor. "I think not." Then he continued: "I remember one lawsuit in which I was involved, I walked into the supreme court and heard the clerk read, 'The people of the United States against Wilton Lackaye.' I picked up my hat and left. The odds against me were too great."—

That Corn Is a Sure 'Goner,' Now

"GETS-IT," the New-Pain Corn Cure, Gets Any Corn Surelly, Quickly

You'll say, "It does beat all how quick 'GETS-IT' got rid of that corn. It's almost magic!" "GETS-IT" gets every corn, every time, as the sun rises. It takes about 2 seconds to apply it. Corn pains stop, you forget the corn, the corn shrivels up, and it's gone! Ever try anything like that? You never did.
There's no more fussing with plasters that press on the corn, no more salves that take off the surrounding flesh, no more bandages. No more knives, files or razors that make corns grow, and cause danger of blood poison. "GETS-IT" is equally harmless to healthy or irritated flesh.
It "gets" every corn, wart, callus and bunion you've got.

"GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in La Crosse by Columbian Pharmacy, City Book and Drug store, Spence-McCord Drug Co.,
Chas. Benschlag, Geo. Mariner, C. F.

KANSAN'S RULES TO RELIEVE FAT ONES

Congressman Victor Murdock.

The strain to which the props under the floor of the house of representatives at Washington is subjected by having to sustain the weight of some 354 legislators has been meas-urably relieved of late by an anti-fat discovery recently made by Victor Murdock, the fighting insurgent from Kansas. Since October 15 last Murdock has reduced his weight from 225 pounds to 180 by following these rules:

Walk at least four miles a day.
Eat one meal a day at night.
Drink no liquids of any sort with the daily meal nor within an hour before or after the meal.
No starches, sugar or butter.
Weigh every day.
If you must drink, don't drink beer.

THE
FIRESIDE SERMON

By Lucius C. Clark, D. D.

Thursday, February twentieth, 1913
Joseph Jefferson, Born February
twenty, 1820.

Job, 14, 13

"When deep sleep falleth on men."

No one is ready to say that we have American theme in story more tender, pathetic and sweetly humorous than that of Washington Irving's Rip Van Winkle. All agree that Joseph Jefferson made the story more alive. With many it is hard to distinguish between Joseph Jefferson and Rip Van Winkle.

Very Easy

Rene Dumie, chef of the Royal Hotel of Monte Carlo, was talking in New York about menus.

"A good menu," he said, "is one that tempts the jaded appetite—one that, like fresh Astrakhan caviare, will give even to the surfeited broker the appetite of a cart horse.

"It is easy enough to make the hungry eat," he ended, smiling—"as easy as to make a river's mouth water."

Got Even

"Brown sent me a brick by parcel post, but I got even with him."

"What did you do?"

"Passed the word along to a number of agents that he was figurin' on taking out more life insurance."
—Detroit Free Press.

A Rescuer

"I suppose you tried to save every penny when you started in business?"

"I did more than that," replied
Mr. Cassius Chex. "I rescued a lot that other people were squandering."
—Washington Star.

Mistaken

First Coster (outside picture dealer's window)—"Who was this 'ere Nero Bill? Wasn't he a chap that was always cold?"

Second Coster—"No; that was Zero; anuvver bloke altogether."—Tit-Bits.

Consoling

Mrs. Noowedde (weeping)—"You don't love me any more. You gave all those beautiful cigars I gave you Christmas to the janitor and the hall boy."

Noowedde—Don't cry darling;
they'll bring them back soon.—Life.

Many people who are honest in other respects are in favor of padding the census. Still, the size of a town is considerably less important than the quality.

The Just and
The Unjust
By Vaughan Kester

"Is that so, Marsh?" He crossed his legs and nursed an ankle with both hands. "Well, somebody ought to lose Moxlow—take him out and forget to find him again. He's much too good for this world; it ain't natural. He's about the only man of his age in Mount Hope who ain't drifted into my rooms at one time or another." He paused and took the cigar from between his teeth. "You call him off, Marsh, make him agree to let me alone; ain't there such a thing as friendship in this profession of yours?"

Langham shook his head, and again Gilmore's black brows met in a frown. He made a contemptuous gesture.

"You're a hell of a lawyer!" he sneered.

"Be careful what you say to me!"
cried Langham, suddenly giving way to the feeling of rage that until now he had held in check.

"Oh, I'm careful enough. I guess if you stop to think a minute you'll understand you got to take what I choose to say as I choose to say it!"

Langham sprang to his feet shaking with anger.

"No, by—," he began hoarsely.

"Sit down," said Gilmore coldly.
"You can't afford to row with me;
anyhow, I ain't going to row with you. I'll tell you what I think of you and what I expect of you, so sit down!"

There was a long pause. Gilmore gazed out the window. He seemed to watch the hurrying snowflakes with no interest in Langham, who was still standing by his desk, with one shaking hand resting on the back of his chair. Presently the lawyer resumed his seat and Gilmore turned toward him.

"Don't talk about my quitting here, Marsh," he said menacingly.
"That's the kind of legal advice I won't have from you or any one else."

"You may as well make up your mind first as last to it," said Langham, not regarding what Gilmore had just said. "I can't keep Mox-low quiet any longer; the sentiment of the community is against gamblers. If you are not a gambler, what are you?"

"You mean you are going to throw me over, you two?"

"With Moxlow it is a case of bread and butter; personally I don't care whom you fleece, but I've got my living to make here in Mount Hope, too, and I can't afford to go counter to public opinion."

"You have had some favors out of me, Marsh."

"I am not likely to forget them, you give me no chance," rejoined Langham bitterly.

"Why should I, eh?" asked Gilmore coolly. He leaned back in his chair and stared at the ceiling above his head. "Marsh, what was that North was saying about me when I came down the hall?" and his swarthy cheeks were tinged with red.

"I don't recall that he was speaking of you."

"You don't? Well, think again.
It was about our going up to your house tonight, wasn't it? Your wife is back, eh? Well, don't worry, I came here partly to tell you that I made other arrangements for the evening."

Don't Fret About Pimples

No More Humiliation; the Wonderful Stuart's Calcium Wafers "Get Right After" Those Pimples, Boils and Skin Eruptions

No need for anyone to go about any longer with a face covered with pimples, blotches, eruptions, blackheads and liver-spots. These are all due to impurities in the blood. Cleanse the blood thoroughly and the blemishes will disappear.

"A Short Time Ago My Face Was Full of Pimples. Now They're All Gone! I Used Stuart's Calcium Wafers."

That's what Stuart's Calcium Wafers are intended to accomplish and do accomplish. Their principal ingredient is Calcium Sulphide, the quickest and most thorough blood cleanser known.

These wonderful little wafers get right into the blood, and destroy eruptive substances present in it. In some cases a few days is sufficient to make a marked improvement. And when the blood is pure the whole system is a hundred per cent better.

Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent box of Stuart's Calcium Wafers. Get them today.

Don't fret any longer about those blackheads, pimples, boils, tetter, eczema, spots or skin eruptions; they all go and "go quick" if you use Stuart's Calcium Wafers.

SYMPATHIZE WITH WORKERS' DEMAND

North Side Shopmen Say They Will Walk Out if a Strike Is Called

Although there are but two boiler makers and a helper employed in the Milwaukee shops in La Crosse, these two today declared they are heartily in sympathy with the demand of the Milwaukee road boiler makers for an advance in wages, and will walk out if the strike which may result from the demands is called.

The strike, according to dispatches from Milwaukee, would involve three thousand men, employed in all the Milwaukee shops between Milwaukee and Minneapolis. The men demand an increase of five cents an hour and an eight-hour day. The present scale is forty cents an hour for nine hours.

J. A. Franklin, international president of the boiler makers, arrived in Milwaukee yesterday from Kansas City, and today he is holding a conference with heads of the union in the Cream city and officials of the road. It is hoped that a compromise can be effected. There are 150 boiler makers employed by the road in Milwaukee.

LOOK YEARS YOUNGER? GRAY HAIR DARKENED BEAUTIFULLY WITH SAGE

Says Sage and Sulphur Will Stop Falling Hair and Cure Dandruff

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggy and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy."

Thus avoiding a lot of fuss. Some druggists make their own, but it isn't nearly so nice as "Wyeth's." While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell, because it does it so naturally; so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever.

Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and it surely helps folks appear years younger.

Out of Sorts

THAT IS, something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scarlatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the digestive organs into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the fetid matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.

FIND PLATE BURIED BY OLD EXPLORER

PIERRE, S. D., Feb. 20.—A metal plate found on a hillside at Fort Pierre yesterday by Hattie Foster, a school child, is deeply engraved on one side as follows: "Anno XXXI. Regal, Ludovicus, Pro Rege Illustris sin, Donimo et Domino Marchione Beauharnois M.D.C.C.XXXI. (1741) Petrus Caultier, de la vendrie posuit."

On the reverse side was the inscription, "Le 30 au Mars 1743," or translated, March 30, 1743.

The relic is supposed to be a plate that was buried by Le Vendrie, an early French explorer, who came into the country by the way of the Great Lakes, is known to have gone west as far as the Rocky mountains about 1743, and to have returned to the Missouri river at some point supposed to be near Pierre. He took with him a number of plates on his trip, which were to be buried at points that he visited.

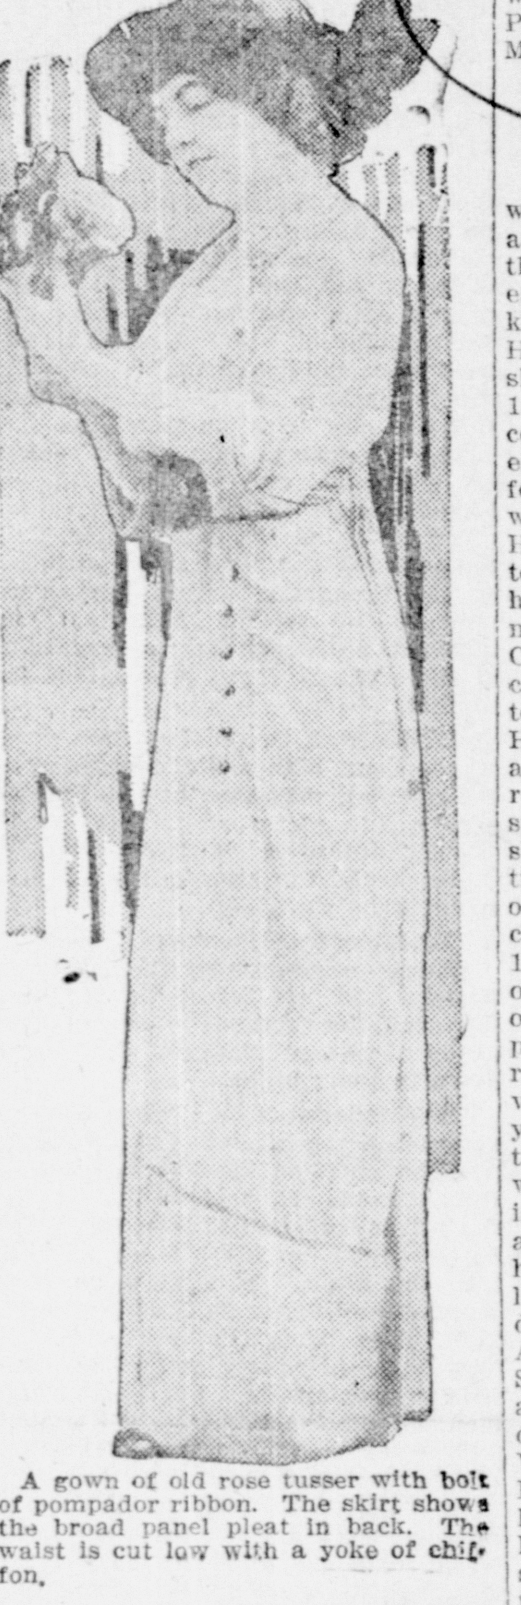

The State Historical society has the relic.

NEWS PROSTRATES MADERO'S BROTHER

DELAFIELD, Wis., Feb. 20.—"We have two dollars to every one possessed by the revolutionists. My brother is a fighting man. He will recoup his losses and in the end we will triumph; of this I have no doubt."

This was the statement authorized by Carlos Madero, 18 years old, brother of Francisco I. Madero, deposed president of the republic of Mexico. The statement was given out by Dr. S. T. Smythe, commandant of St. John's, who stated that, overcome by the failure of his brother to withstand the onslaught of the Diaz revolutionists, and nearly prostrated by his other brother, Gustavo Madero, the youngest member of the Madero family had confined himself to his room and could not be interviewed.

Dr. Smythe said he was in receipt of a message from the deposed president, asking that his brother be kept in school. The ex-president in his message said there was no need of the lad's presence in Mexico City and that the reverses suffered by the family would not be allowed to interfere with Carlos' education.

WOMAN'S HAIR REACHES TO KNEES

A Year Ago Was Threatened With Baldness. Tells How She Made Her Hair Grow.

Mrs. Esther Emery, now visiting friends in the city, is the fortunate possessor of marvelously beautiful hair, which, when loosed from its coils, falls to her knees. Moreover it is of soft, silky and fluffy texture and in color a glorious glossy gold. Yet just one year ago she was threatened with baldness. Urged to tell how she had obtained this wonderful growth in so short a time, she said: "Had anyone told me such marvelous results could be accomplished so quickly, I positively would not have believed it. Twelve months ago my hair, which then reached barely to my shoulders, was falling out at an alarming rate and growing very thin, actually exposing the bald scalp in several spots. It was dull and lifeless in color, turning grey in patches, and very dry and brittle. My head was covered with dandruff and itched like mad all the time. I tried fully a dozen different hair tonics but they were all the same and never did me a bit of good. One day I chanced to read in my home paper of a simple home prescription to make the hair grow that was recommended by a well known physician. It said that by taking ordinary Lavona de Compose and mixing with Bay Rum and Menthol Crystals and applying to the scalp each night with the finger tips that new hair would grow very rapidly. I decided to try it and I had my druggist mix 2 oz. of the Lavona de Compose with 6 oz. of Bay Rum and 1/2 dr. of Menthol Crystals, and started to use it. My hair quickly stopped falling, the itching ceased and the dandruff disappeared. Then tiny little hairs appeared all over my scalp. These grew and grew as though nothing would ever stop them. They are growing yet and while, of course, I have used the treatment steadily and expect to continue it, at least until my hair reaches the floor. I might have stopped and been perfectly satisfied at the end of three months. I think that any woman can get long, thick, beautiful hair by using this prescription as I have recommended it to several friends and all are delighted with the result. The prescription is very inexpensive and any druggist can fill it."

Those who use it should be careful not to get it on the face or where hair is not desired.

TOMAH, WIS.

The death of Mr. Robert Howie, which occurred Sunday afternoon at his home on the south side of this city, takes one of Tomah's earliest settlers and one of the best known men in Monroe county. Mr. Howie was born in Irving, Ayrshire, Scotland, on Aug. 6, 1830. In 1856 he emigrated to this country, coming directly to Tomah, where he entered the employment of Tomah's founder, Mr. Gillett, for whom he worked for a number of years. Mr. Howie carried the mail from Tomah to Sparta on foot and had many hairbreadth escapes from wild animals. After this he assisted Mr. C. C. Miller, who was surveying this country, and then he engaged in teaming from Sparta to La Crosse. He then bought a farm consisting of about one hundred acres in and surrounding Tomah, where he has resided ever since. He was a crack shot and an ardent sportsman in the true sense of the word. A great lover of horses, he was always willing to challenge all comers in racing. In 1911 he carried off the purse in one of the horse races. For a number of years he raised English hares and pheasants for the market. He carried off nearly all the prizes for vegetable produce for a number of years at the Eastern Monroe County fair. His generous hospitality was proverbial. As a conversationalist Mr. Howie was without a peer and it was indeed a treat to hear him relate the episodes of his past life in his pleasant lowland Scotch dialect. Mr. Howie was married to Agnes Alexander, also a native of Scotland, who survives him. He also leaves to mourn his loss five daughters, Elizabeth, Estella, Anna, Violet and Lucile, and two sons, Robert and Wallace, and also a large number of friends. Mr. Howie had been failing in health ever since last fall, when he was struck in the back by a trunk, but was very active until about two weeks before

Rheumatism
A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It
In the spring of 1908 I was attacked by Rheumatism and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatism to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. If, after you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

were brought into real warfare before I had barely walked beyond the immediate range.
I was slowly crossing from the plaza to go to the cable office to send news of the liberation of Diaz and Reyes when the lines of soldiers I had so casually inspected opened fire with scattering volleys. The machine guns instantly took part, sweeping the crowded Zocalo, that ancient battle ground where thousands have perished, and sending a storm of bullets into the unsuspecting throngs of women, children and men.
With the first volley the terror-stricken crowds scattered in all directions, the women shrieking or falling fainting upon the streets, to be trampled upon by the fleeing thousands. I ran with the rest, making for San Francisco street. As I ran I saw men and women fall on every side from the bullets of the federal machine guns which flew high and wide in every direction except into the ranks of the rebel soldiers. Reaching San Francisco street, I ran another half block before I saw an open doorway, and darted in followed by seven men, every one of whom had been more or less seriously wounded.
Non-Combatants Target
I looked out through the comparative safety of the doorway and watched the flight of the thousands down San Francisco street. Into the hordes of refugees swept riderless cavalry horses, their hoofs beating down men and women and trampling dozens of the refugees fall from the bullets of the machine guns which the soldiers on the roof of the palace trained directly upon the crowds and kept them so trained until the streets had been swept clear of all save the dead and wounded.
Two hundred and eighty bodies were removed from the streets around Zocalo as the result of that first massacre and fully 800 non-combatants were seriously wounded.
After the onslaught in front of the palace, Diaz led his cavalry and artillery on a mad gallop through the streets to Ciudadela and the arsenal, which he captured from the federal garrison after a sharp battle. Diaz lost no time in arranging to stand a protracted siege, ably assisted by General Manuel Mondragon, the most expert artillery officer in the army.
Madero Delays
The government was caught unprepared, and could make no immediate assault on the rebel position. Madero spent Monday sending troops and placing his batteries in advantageous positions on the streets leading to arsenal. Early on the morning of Tuesday, February 11 the artillery began in earnest. Six batteries of federal guns, located in all directions from the arsenal, concentrated their fire upon Diaz's strong fortification. Diaz had captured with the arsenal an enormous supply of shrapnel, which he poured upon the federal forces and the surrounding buildings with disastrous effect.
The real horrors of war were brought home to the people of the capital. A scene unheard of in modern warfare unfolded itself before the terror-stricken gaze of half a million people. The capital became a great battle ground, and one crowded with thousands of women and children, none of whom had been warned, or given the slightest chance to escape from the shell swept area.
Practically everyone in the city was exposed to the chance of being killed or wounded, even when in their homes. This was testified to by the deaths of Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Griffith, the two Americans who were killed by shells in their own homes. This was only one instance.
Shells Burst Over City
Hundreds of non-combatants were killed under similar circumstances by the bullets that flew far and wide from the shrapnel shells bursting over the city. These shells exploded over the most populous section of the city, scattering their leaden missiles in a death-dealing hail. Other shells crashed into the walls of high buildings, entered the windows of clubs, hotels, banks and stores, wrecking buildings or rooms by the dozen, and killing or wounding hundreds of innocent victims.
Day after day, and often for hours at night, the same frightful conditions continued. Added to the thunder of the larger cannon came the almost incessant rattle of the machine guns and the whining song of rifle bullets. In many streets the bodies of the dead or wounded lay throughout the day, to be removed only when darkness brought partial PROTECTION TO THE RESCUERS. Automobiles flying the flags of the Red and White Cross passed through the streets, picking up what wounded they could, but even their errand of mercy was not respected. Many of the machines were fired upon and their occupants wounded.

Armistice Sunday
Until Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, when a supposed twenty-four hour armistice was declared, the stricken city knew hardly a moment's peace.
On Sunday people ventured timidly out of doors, hardly believing the news of a temporary cessation of hostilities. As the early morning hours passed, and the sound of the church bells, drowned for days by the thunder of the bombardment, once more rang through the city, the people flocked to the main streets and the city took on new life.
The Mexican people, quick to forget and ever ready for a fiesta, assumed almost a holiday spirit. Assured at least of a day's peace, they promenaded the streets, or gathered by the thousands within the actual zone of the week's fighting, and watched curiously the preparations of the soldiery for a renewal of the conflict.
Suddenly at two o'clock in the afternoon and with a little warning as the opening massacre of the Sunday before, the rattle of small arms, quickly followed by the shriek of shells, broke the almost Sabbath-like stillness of the day.
By-Standers Massacred Again
Caught unawares by the action of Madero and his forces in breaking the armistice without warning, hundreds of non-combatants were shot down in their flight.
The Maderistas had taken advantage of the armistice to improve their position and had fired upon the Diaz forces under the pretext that it was the rebels that had broken faith. The battle raged fiercely all day and far into the night. It was resumed on Monday and again on Tuesday morning. Then came the terrific tidings that the federalists were preparing to use mortars to hurl dynamite shells upon the citadel.
The tortured populace was trembling in the expectation of the complete ruin of the city by the dynamite projectiles when the word came of the sudden and significant change in the entire situation. General Huerta and Blanquet arrested Madero and his brother Gustavo, the battle had ceased and the streets were quickly filled with tens of thousands shouting themselves hoarse with "Vivas" for Diaz and Huerta, the two directing heads of the slaughter and destruction which had been hurled upon the city for ten successive days.
The events that followed wrought kaleidoscopic changes in the situation. Generals Huerta and Diaz addressed the populace and other members of the provisional government hurried through the city assuring groups of citizens that the terrors of the last week were ended forever and that a new era of peace and prosperity had dawned.
Former Enemies Unite
General Huerta quickly assumed the temporary role of military dictator with General Diaz, his erstwhile opponent, as commander in chief of the new allied forces that a little while before had been flying at each other's throats. The senate met to elect a provisional president and on Wednesday ex-President Madero and Gustavo Madero, his evil genius, were removed from the palace to the citadel. Then came the news of the execution of Gustavo.
On the heels of this came the word of finding of the deposed president's list of "those who should die," and the fury it aroused among the leaders of the new government. His exile by way of Vera Cruz was halted and today, with General Huerta formally elected provisional president, there was widespread belief that the man who overthrew Porfirio Diaz, would be tried on a charge of murder and probably executed.
The total cost in human life and suffering, aside from the destruction of property, resulting from the ten days was estimated today at 2,500 soldiers killed, 2,000 non-combatants killed, 4,000 soldiers wounded, and 3,000 non-combatants wounded, making the total casualties 4,500 dead and 7,000 wounded.

DAMAGE CASE IS BEFORE COMMISSION
First Under Workmen's Compensation Act to Be Taken Up in La Crosse
The first hearing ever conducted in La Crosse by the state industrial commission under the employer's liability act was held by Commissioner J. D. Beck in the court house today. In the case of William Davorak, appellant, versus the La Crosse Stamping Tool company, respondent. According to the argument of Frank Winter, attorney for the appellant, Mr. Davorak lost the first joint of the index finger of his right hand last November in an accident on a drill press and has been able to collect $30 damages from the company. Mr. Winter maintained that Davorak was entitled to compensation for partial disability for a period of at least fifteen years. He based his argument on the fact that Davorak was working at the Stamping Tool works only temporarily, having been a marble cutter as a regular occupation. He said further that Mr. Davorak is a musician and earns part of his living in this manner.
Mr. Winter argues that Davorak was partially disabled both as a musician and marble cutter and asked the commissioner to allow him compensation in accordance with this disability.

LABOR LEADER TO TALK AT NORMAL

John Mitchell, President of United Mine Workers of America, Lectures Monday Evening

HAS HAD A REMARKABLE CAREER

Began Life as Breaker Boy in Mines; Rose to the Leadership of Great
Union

A truly great man and one with a remarkable career, comes to speak to a La Crosse audience on next Monday evening, when John Mitchell appears in the Normal Lecture course. John Mitchell's life story reads like a romance. Born in a poor farmer's family in the year 1870, he lost both parents before he was five years of age. He received only irregular schooling in poor country schools between the ages of six and ten years, but this deficiency he later made up by night study, by systematic courses of reading and by participation in literary and other societies whenever the opportunity offered.

At the age of thirteen Mitchell entered the coal mines as breaker boy. In Illinois, Colorado, Idaho and New Mexico he labored as a miner in different capacities, always acquiring practical knowledge of men and at the same time keeping up his night study of economic problems. In this way he acquired a firm grasp of fundamental principals and at the same time a practical working knowledge of actual industrial conditions.

John Mitchell's introduction into a labor union was at the age of sixteen years, when he became door-keeper for a local union. But a man of his quality could not be kept in a subordinate position and he filled one office after another until in 1899 he became president of the United Mine Workers of America.

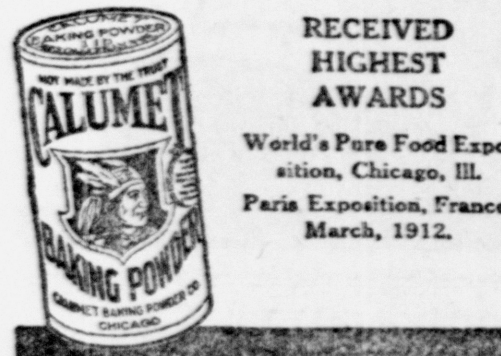

The supreme test of Mitchell's strength and ability was the great anthracite coal miners' strike of 1902. There were involved in this conflict 147,000 miners. The owners refused to arbitrate until President Roosevelt took a hand and wielding the big stick of public sentiment forced them to adopt Mitchell's proposal that the questions in dispute be settled by a commission to be appointed by President Roosevelt. Concerning Mitchell's able management of this affair a writer says, "After five months of bitter warfare he has fought a successful termination of the greatest conflict between capital and labor ever waged in the history of the world. He has advanced the cause of labor by leaps and bounds; he has ushered in the period when peace through arbitration promises to reign supreme over an industrial world in place of war through strikes and lockouts."

ROME, Feb. 20.—Professor Giuseppe Bastianelli, one of the most widely known medical specialists in Italy, was today summoned to Cairo, Egypt, to attend J. P. Morgan, the American financier, who has been suffering from acute indigestion.

"LUCKY" BALDWIN'S DAUGHTER ON STAGE;
SISTERS HAVE MILLIONS; SHE $25 A WEEK

NEW YORK.—No ups and downs in "Lucky" Baldwin's kaleidoscopic career contrast more strikingly than the different lots Fate has apportioned to two of his daughters. Last month Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker, heiress to nearly half of "Lucky" Baldwin's $24,000,000, after spending $1,000,000 on diamonds, gold and silverware, automobiles, wardrobe and other luxuries in this city, returned in her own newly acquired Pullman to her California palace. A fortnight ago nineteen-year-old Anita Baldwin, one of the comeliest of Broadway show girls, moved by the street car route into one back room at No. 543 Madison avenue. And Anita earns $25 a week. "Anita Baldwin" would never have been identified as the late plunger's daughter if a life-long friend who years ago dandled the child on his knee at Baldwin's Pasadena ranch had not attended the performances of the "Sunshine Girl" at the Knickerbocker Theater recently. There he recognized behind the footlights her whom her mother had ever since childhood concealed under the name of "Anita Turnbull."

HIKERS LEAVE WILMINGTON

WILMINGTON, Del., Feb. 20.—The suffragette hikers left their hotel early today on their journey to Washington. They stopped at Newport to pay respects to Mrs. Martha M. Cranston, who is past 70, and one of the most ardent suffragists in Delaware. From there the pilgrims began the walk to Newark, Del.

Of course, we are all fools, but the most hopeless are those among us who consult a dream book often than an encyclopedia.

SAYS STEAK WILL SOON COME DOWN

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 20.—The time is not far distant when a man in moderate circumstances can now and then sink his molar into a porterhouse steak according to Patrick Cudahy, millionaire head of the Cudahy Brothers' packing company. Cudahy declared he looked for a material decline in the price of beef during the next six months. The farmers, he said, are being educated to know it is more profitable to sell their corn "on the hoof."

MOTHER PAROLED TO HER DAUGHTER

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 20.—Frances Rogowski, 38 years old, charged with shoplifting, would probably have come to grief Wednesday morning in district court had it not been for the efforts of her daughter, Mary, 18 years old, who induced the court to give her mother another chance.

On motion of District Attorney Edward J. Yockey, Mrs. Rogowski was put on parole for sixty days. Mary will be her probation officer.

Are You Subject to Constipation

Here is a Simple Way of Correcting
It Instantly Before It Becomes Chronic

Very few people go through life without some time or other being troubled with constipation. Thousands injure themselves by the use of strong cathartics, salt mineral waters, pills and similar things. They have temporary value in some cases, it is true, but the more one takes of them the less effective they become.

A physic or purgative is seldom necessary, and much better and more permanent results can be obtained by using a scientific remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It does not hide behind a high sounding name, but is what it is represented to be, a mild laxative medicine. It is so mild that thousands of mothers give it to tiny infants, and yet it is so compounded, and contains such definite ingredients that it will have equally good effect when used by a person suffering from the worst chronic constipation. In fact, among the greatest endorsers of Syrup Pepsin are elderly people who have suffered for years and found nothing to benefit them until they took Syrup Pepsin.

It is a fact that millions of families have Syrup Pepsin constantly in the house, homes like those of Mrs. G. B. Pruitt, Berea, Ky., who used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as a laxative tonic. Mrs. Pruitt writes that it so strengthened and cleansed her system that she was quickly relieved of a severe cough which had troubled her for months. The special value of this grand laxative tonic is that it is suited to the needs of every member of the family. It is pleasant tasting, mild and non-gripping. Unlike harsh physics it works gradually and in a very brief time the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to do their work naturally again, when all medicines can be dispensed with.

You can obtain a bottle at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is usually bought by families who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

Get a 25-cent package of "Pape's Cold Compound" from your druggist and take it with the knowledge that it will positively and promptly cure your cold and end all the Grippe misery; without any assistance or bad after-effects and that it contains no quinine—don't accept something else said to be just as good. Tastes nice—acts gently.—Advertisement.

SPOTLIGHTS

The Pink Lady

In their captivating international musical comedy hit "The Pink Lady," which is to be seen here for one performance at La Crosse Theater, beginning tonight at 8:15, Klau & Erlanger will present on this occasion the biggest and happiest presentation it has been their good fortune to introduce to American and foreign theatergoers.

It comes here as new and bright as if it had just been turned out and yet it has the force behind it of the most phenomenal runs ever registered in America and in Europe by any musical production of recent theatrical prominence. The merry piece ran through the best part of two seasons at the Amsterdam Theater, N. Y., in an engagement of a year's duration and during that time it was seen by over half a million people and was unanimously voted the most entertaining and well directed and handled musical comedy ever made known on this side of the Atlantic and received an equally flattering reception at the Globe Theater, London, where its success was so marked that today six foreign organizations are presenting it in every civilized part of the old world.

Of course, everyone is familiar with "My Beautiful Lady" waltzes and "Hide and Seek" and "The Girl by the Saskatchewan," but there are sixteen others and as they will be played here by the famous Pink Lady orchestra that travels with the company the music will take on a new charm.

A notable cast and a company of 100 people will present the work on the local stage and give a performance that will be the unequalled treat of the season. In the extraordinary cast of quality will be found John E. Young, Olga DeBaugh, Harry Depp, Georgia Harvey, Alfred Deery, Tessa Kostka, Donald Hall, Elizabeth MacAfee, Abbott Worthley, Vinie Bradcomb, Dan Young, Lucie Carter, Joseph Monahan, Robert Wilcox and nearly a score of others not forgetting the famous Pink of Perfection chorus.

The Trail of the Lonesome Pine—The Trail of the Lonesome Pine, which comes to the La Crosse Theater next Saturday, matinee and night, Washington's birthday, is the story of big humans, big hearts and big purposes. Beyond all the futile spirit of feudalism there is the blue in the skies, canopied the lonely rugged tree; the sweet spirit of June and the iron-willed, masterful Judd. Klau and Erlanger have given a most elaborate production to Eugene Walter's dramatization of John Fox, Jr.'s widely read book, and those who love June in the romance will be more than charmed with Miss Charlotte Walker's delightful presentation of the mountain heroine, who has already become enshrined in the hearts of a million book lovers.

The Quaker Girl—Be prepared, oh ye feminine High-Brows, who aim at political honors and other spheres of usefulness that the old fashioned ones ascribed to women, to doff your hats to the venerable art of dressmaking, for it is held up to the world on no less conspicuous a platform than that of the modern theater, to be at the very root of all progress, social, political or any other kind. In "The Quaker Girl," the great three-act English musical play which comes to the La Crosse Theater Tuesday, Feb. 25, there is in the second act, a Parisian dressmaker's salon, where exquisite gowns are displayed on lovely models, and the mistress of the salon, is Madame Blum, played by Andree Corday. Miss Corday is very much in love with her role simply for the joy she gets out of handling those lovely costumes. According to her, the world owes a debt of gratitude to the makers of beautiful clothes. "Who doesn't enjoy looking at a beautiful object," says Miss Corday, "and what is more fascinating than a costume designed to set off to the best advantage the lines of the human figure, in colors that suggest flowers in spring and softness of texture that bring back again childish visions of fairy gauds."

Love never dies of old age but it is sometimes tortured to death.

ADVERTISING MEN ATTEND LECTURE

Experience and Advice of One of Greatest Experts in Business Given in Address

DEVELOPMENT OF MODERN IDEA

Says Man Who Does Not Believe in Advertising
Is a Back Number

The experience and advice of one of the greatest advertising experts in the country, Manley Gillum, advertising counsel for the Waukegan stores in New York and Philadelphia, were given the members of the La Crosse Ad club and several business men of the city in the Longfellow school building last night in the sixth lecture of the Ad Club series.

The lecture, which was on "Retail Advertising," was written by Mr. Gillum, who is sometimes known as "the father of modern advertising" and was read by C. A. Krebaum, president of the club. The lecture was accompanied by stereopticon views which were thrown on the screen to illustrate the points in the dissertation by Prof. Theodore Ubbelohde, of the University Extension college.

Value to Business Men
The lecture was of great value to the business men in that it illustrated and explained the fundamental principles of the advertising methods adopted by the greatest retail merchants of the world. Mr. Gillum's methods have been adopted from coast to coast and he spoke with the authority and experience of a man who had made a life study of the art of attracting public interest to the goods offered for sale by the retailer. The advance in the business of advertising over the methods of a former decade was remarkably depicted in the stereopticon views which showed the earliest methods and the development brought about by the modern idea.

All Advertisers
One of the most striking features of Mr. Gillum's address was the statement that every business man and merchant is advertising in one way or another. He said that if the merchant boasts that he does not believe in advertising, he is advertising himself as a back number and the customer could expect to find his goods as old fashioned and behind the times as the man who is attempting to sell them. He declared that on the other hand the modern business man believes in advertising as a legitimate means of placing his goods before the public and that his stock in continually moving and always fresh.

The members of the La Crosse Ad club are working hard to obtain a better attendance at their lectures and believe that they will merit the attention of the business men of La Crosse. Although a comparatively new organization, the spirit of enterprise is strong in its membership and it is likely that the lecture course will grow more popular as it becomes better known.

The lecture last night was preceded by the bi-monthly meeting of the club and a supper which was given by President Krebaum in his office at Third and Main streets. The next lecture of the series will be given in the Longfellow school building on March 5.

POET'S BODY CREMATED
OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 20.—The body of the late Joaquin Miller, poet of the Sierras, was cremated today. The cremation followed simple ceremonies at the Miller home. Colonel John P. Irish, friend of the poet, delivered an eloquent eulogy. Rev. William Simonds spoke briefly and Miss Blanche Partington recited "The Giver of Rest," one of Miller's poems.

Today's Beauty Recipes

By Mlle. D'Mille.

"Falling hair and oncoming baldness can be stopped, and dry, brittle, dull and faded hair restored to a glossy, fluffy condition if the head is washed once a week with Mother's Shampoo, and a little glycerine is massaged into the hair roots twice a week. You can buy Mother's Shampoo from any druggist at 25 cents a package of ten shampoos. It removes the parasites that cause hair to fall out.

"Women humiliated by superfluous hair or fuzz eradicate these blemishes by applying a paste made by mixing a little powdered delatone and water. Cover the hairs with the paste, leave on two minutes, wipe off, wash the skin and the hairs will be gone.

"Women with scrawny and angular lines can take the famous Vaucaire treatment for rounding out the form at home if they will dissolve 1 1/2 cupsful sugar in a pint of hot water and then stir in an ounce of gallol. Take two teaspoonfuls before meals and the hollows will soon round out, as gallol is a tissue energizer.

"Did you know Mother's Salve, an old fashioned home remedy, has grown in popular demand so that it is sold in prepared form in drug stores? It is splendid for headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, sore muscles, bruises, stiff neck or pains and aches in back or joints.

"You can make a true complexion beautifier at home at little expense by dissolving an original package of mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel. Gently massage the face, neck and arms with this lotion each morning and it will correct facial blemishes, muddy spots, etc., and make the skin fresh, fair and lovely."

COMMITTEE VOTES TO MOVE THE FAIR

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 20.—By a vote of five to four, the assembly committee on agriculture recommended for passage the Carpenter bill providing for the selection of a committee, one from each congressional district, to choose a site for the state fair. This is an entering wedge for the proposed removal of the fair from Milwaukee. One of the hottest fights of the session will ensue on this bill. The committee voted indefinite postponement of the Schilling bill removing the state fair to Wausau.

SHE COULD NOT STOP IT.
She tried and tried, this thing, that thing, then the other thing. All no good. Then she thought of Hall's Hair Renewer. Talked with her doctor about it. Then bought it, used it. Her hair stopped falling out at once. Now she is telling her friends. No coloring or staining of the hair, either.

WANTS HUSBAND'S PETITION DENIED

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 20.—Ann Mary Eckmann, daughter of Clara Bowen Shepard, well known impressario, filed an answer on Wednesday to the divorce suit of her husband, Joseph Eckmann.

The answer alleges that he contributed $250 towards her support since they were married. It is also charged that Eckmann was cruel towards her and slapped her on several occasions. Mrs. Eckmann alleges that her husband showed a disrespectful attitude toward her mother and "unjustly criticized defendant's manner of physical features, which caused great pain and mental anguish." She asks that the petition of her husband for divorce be denied and a divorce be granted her with alimony.

HOOD'S BILLS ARE MARKED FOR DEATH

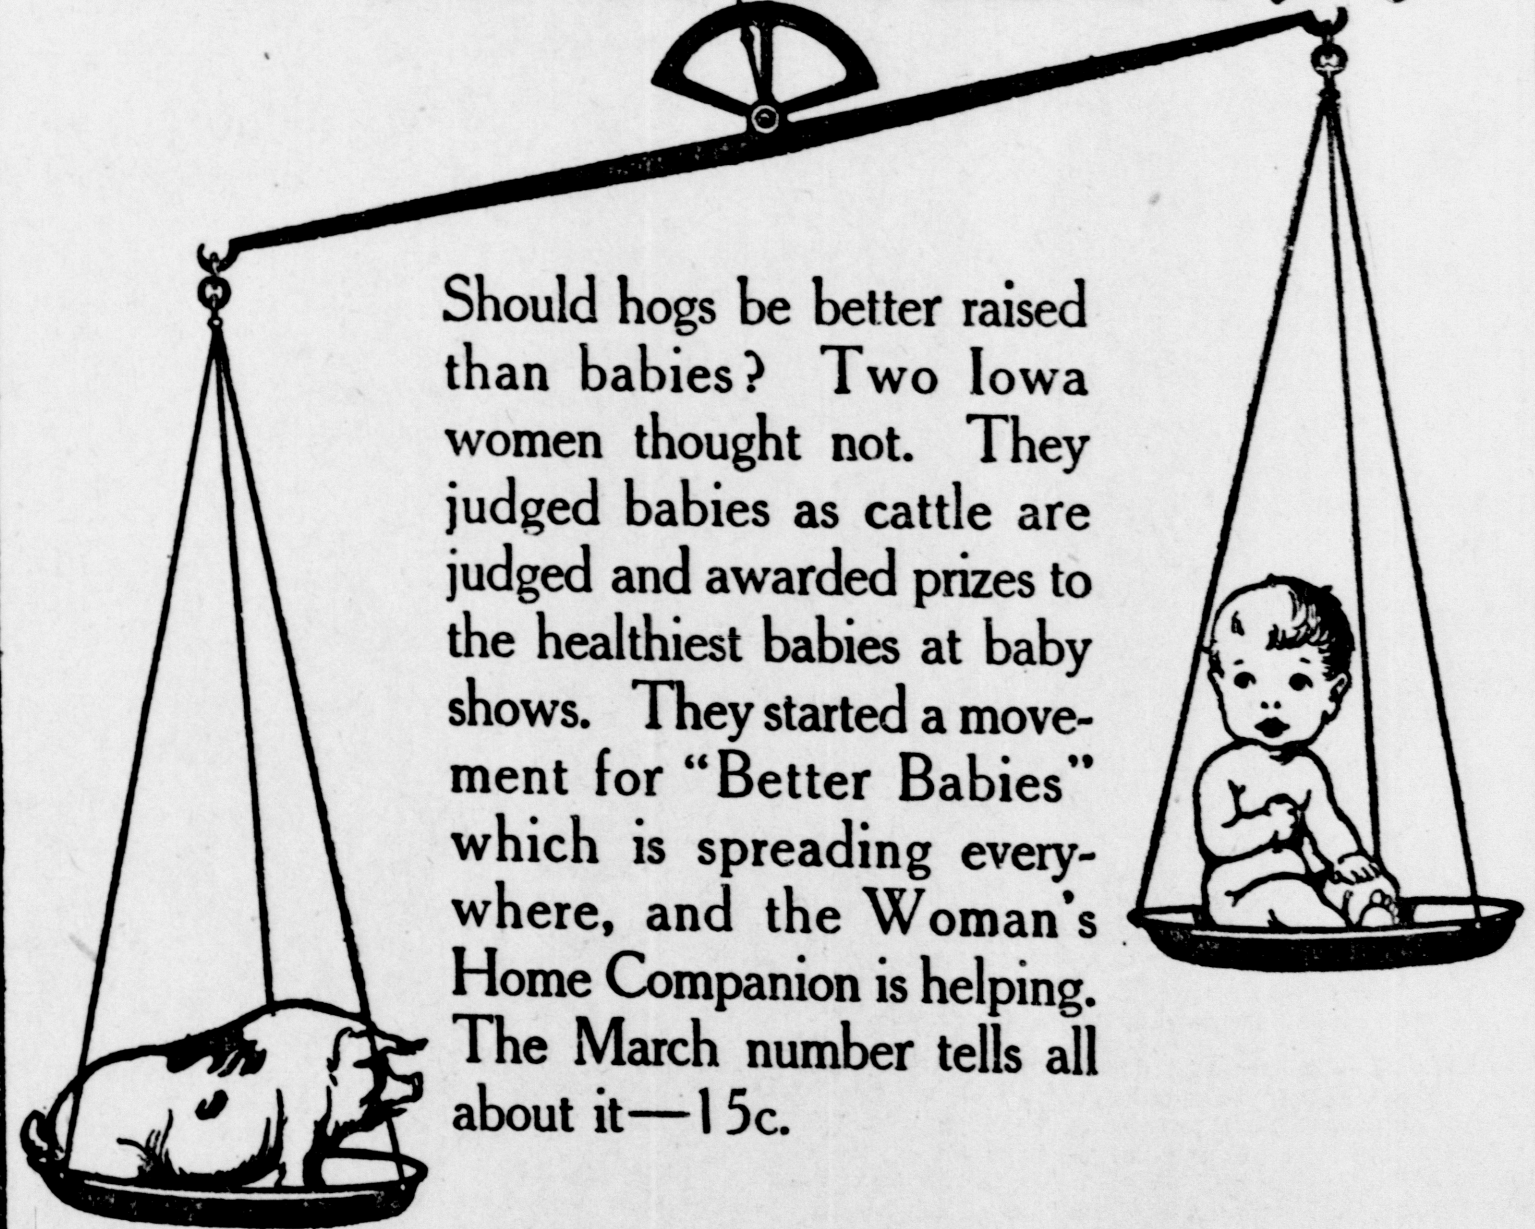

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—The committee on finance recommended for death the Hood bills seeking wholesale reduction in state boards. These bills sought to repeal the laws creating the state park board and state industrial commission, to reduce the appropriation for the state forestry board from $35,000 to $10,000, and that of the free library commission from $20,000 to $10,000.

They Break up Colds, Relieve Feverishness, Constipation, Teething Disorders, Headache and Stomach Troubles. Used by Mothers for 22 years. THESE POWDERS NEVER FAIL. Sold by all Drug Stores, 25c. Don't accept any substitutes. Sample mailed FREE. Address, A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

HOGS or BABIES?

Should hogs be better raised than babies? Two Iowa women thought not. They judged babies as cattle are judged and awarded prizes to the healthiest babies at baby shows. They started a movement for "Better Babies" which is spreading everywhere, and the Woman's Home Companion is helping. The March number tells all about it—15c.

$4,500 SUBSCRIBED

For Free Factory Site For La Crosse

Four blocks known as the Sawyer and Austin Mill Site, and fifty-one acres adjoining on the north, have been listed with me for sale. This property is located north of Gillette street, and is divided by Caledonia street. There are two railroads running through this tract of land, and street car within one block, making this an ideal factory site. This property can be bought for $20,000. One good factory located on this site will create a value for the remaining property, so that four blocks may be platted and if sold at $300 per lot, will create a fund of $26,400, and there will still be 51 acres left for factory sites, which may be given free, as an inducement to any desirable factories.

A number of men have thought favorably of this proposition and have subscribed $4,500, so that now $15,500 is needed to carry out this plan. Subscriptions from $100 up are being received with the understanding that each subscriber is to hold an interest in the land to the amount of his subscription. When this fund is large enough a holding company will be organized to take charge of this fund and make the purchase.

LET ME HEAR FROM YOU.

WOLGAST FAVORITE OVER TOM MURPHY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 20.—With the Ad Wolgast, Harlem Tommy Murphy battle only two days away, Wolgast was the favorite in the betting today. The odds were 10 to 9, though the amount of money wagered was not large.

Both lads have been working hard in preparation for the fray—Wolgast for a week and Murphy for nearly twice that long.

GIANTS TAKE WORKOUT

MARLIN SPRINGS, Texas, Feb. 20.—The squad of Giants again put in a few hours of light work at their training ground here today, but some muscles were much in evidence following the first workout taken yesterday. Manager McGraw was thoroughly pleased with the showing of the Indian Thorpe during yesterday's work. Thorpe showed a good batting eye and performed like a veteran at first base and in the outfield. Later his pitching arm may be tried out.

MURPHY PREVENTS KONETCHY TRADE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 20.—President Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh club on Wednesday blamed Charles W. Murphy of Chicago and "certain persons in New York" with blocking the deal to bring Konetchy to Pittsburgh. Larry Doyle, Giant captain, was one of the New Yorkers mentioned. Dreyfuss says Murphy talked Miller Huggins, St. Louis manager, into a comatose condition, dissuading him from trading Konetchy to the Pirates. The same persons, Dreyfuss says, are responsible for the holdout among the Pirates. Murphy, Doyle, et al, so Barney says, have sown dissatisfaction in the hope of breaking up the great Pirate lineup.

KENNEY RETURNS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 20.—Following a meeting last night of the Marquette Athletic council, it was announced today that Dr. Clarence Kenney again would act as football coach at Marquette this fall.

RIVERS CONFIDENT OF LICKING CROSS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 20.—"I will be in the best shape of my life on Washington's birthday, and I'll be able to go the whole twenty rounds as fast as Cross and I traveled in New York."

This was the confident prediction today of Joe Rivers, who meets Knockout Brown of New York, in a scheduled twenty round trip at Venice. He has been working daily at Doyle's camp, while Brown has let no grass grow under his feet at Venice.

Indications are that Rivers will be a ringside favorite.

LASTS TWO ROUNDS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 20.—Jack Denning of New York was puzzled today to explain his being knocked cold in the second round by Jack Dillon, the Hoosier middleweight. Denning came here touted high and in training looked Dillon's superior.

BADGERS AWARDED 1913 TRACK MEET

KILBANE SCORES A KNOCKOUT IN SIXTH

Big Nine Track Teams Will Clash on Randall Field June 6 and 7

Referee Stops Fight After St. Louis Lad Is Sent to the Floor for the Third Time

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 20.—According to word received here today the 1913 outdoor track meet of the Wisconsin conference will be held on the University of Wisconsin athletic field. The meet was awarded to Madison by the conference athletic council. It is scheduled for June 6 and 7.

In addition to the big nine schools, Leland Stanford university of Berkeley, Cal., and teams from the universities of Missouri, Nebraska, Arkansas and California, will compete.

The first day of the meet will be given over to preliminary tryouts and the finals will come Saturday, June 7th.

Work will begin immediately, according to the University of Wisconsin athletic directors, on the Camp Randall field to get the field in the best possible condition for the competition.

ORRIE OVERALL IN GOOD CONDITION

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 20.—Orrie Overall will be back with the Cubs again this season.

This is the word that Del Howard brought from the south with him on Wednesday. Del saw Big Jeff in the southern part of the state. The Seal captain says the big fellow is working hard and apparently is in good shape.

Overall is out pitching every day and says his arm is in fairly good shape now and getting stronger all the time. The old injury to his pitching arm has apparently left no bad effects and Overall says he expects to be in as good form as he ever was. He probably will leave for the east in the near future to join Murphy's squad.

Overall has every confidence that he will be one of the few successful "come backs."

WHITE SOX LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—With seventy-five White Sox players, fans, managers and war correspondents on board, the Comiskey special will leave for Pasorobles, Cal., tonight. Twenty-five of the party will be players, the others mere retainers. The squad will go directly to Pasorobles, where it will put in a month of unbroken practice, after which it will start back on its barn storming trip. Manager Jimmy Callahan is planning a somewhat different training trip this year. He is going to cut down the amount of baseball and increase the amount of other exercise the squad gets. For a few days the men will indulge in golf, tennis, and other sports in which there is no umpire to bait.

KETCHEL SIGNS TO MEET PAL BROWN

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 20.—Steve Ketchel of Chicago, touted by many as the coming lightweight champion, has signed for a ten round go with Pal Brown of Hibbing, Minn., before the Badger Athletic club here. Ketchel will meet Brown March 3. The boys fought a fast draw at Hibbing recently.

BREWER CONTRACTS LEFT UNSIGNED

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 20.—Secretary Nabin of the Brewers, announced today that of thirty contracts sent out, only ten signed "papers" have been returned. He denies, however, that the unsigned twenty are hold-outs.

FIGHT IS TAME

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 20.—Several legislators today expressed the opinion that boxing is not so brutal after all, following the ten round draw between Jeff Travers and Jack O'Connell, both of Chicago, here Wednesday night.

APPLETON, Wis., Feb. 20.—A petition is being rapidly signed by the businessmen at Appleton requesting that Mark Catlin, the former University of Chicago captain, be retained as coach of the Lawrence college football team.

Our Rug Stock is in a class by itself

Chaumont Chenille Rugs

This is our most inexpensive Chenille Seamless Rug. In richness of texture and coloring it appeals to the average eye almost as strongly as our better grades. The pile is composed of a fine grade of wool stock, which spreads out to form a smooth, resilient surface. The back is of specially prepared yarn which is very durable and satisfactory.

Besides Chenille Rugs we sell 9x12 Rugs ranging in price from..... $16.50

Come in and see our Rugs. All are quality goods.
